STATINTL

I have delayed a formal response to reference request while [REDACTED] was working out with your people the basis for his participation in the MERCURY evaluation process. I believe those arrangements are now complete and I am happy to confirm by this means our willingness to have him involved. I regret that his other duties will preclude participation in the depth which you might prefer and which the project clearly justifies, but I think we are agreed that even on a part-time basis he can make a contribution to the evaluation.
